

I do not want to be bothered or harassed by Banks or other financial institutions at my residence with advertising phone calls. I have placed my phone on the "do not call" list offered by the State of Indiana. The businesses wanting to call can either send advertising in the mail or on the Internet and should not be allowed to disturb people during their meals or weekends.